

Mark Lancaster

Beta Theta Pi Chapter House

The new Beta Theta Pi Chapter House is a three story building with 17,000 sf of living space. There are 36 single bedrooms with 18 shared baths. The structure is made up of concrete block walls, hollow core slab floors, and a wood truss roof with 50 year shingles. The house is designed for minimal maintenance and maximum durability.

Owner:
Architect:
Contracting Method:

BTP House Corporation
Giattina, Fisher, Aycok
Traditional Bid

