

Mark Lancaster

University of Alabama Health Center

This 17,200 square foot building houses the UA Student Health Center. An enclosed corridor connects this building to the School of Medicine, enabling better use of the staff and equipment already in place. Additionally, much of the equipment from the existing Russell Student Health Center has been relocated to the new building to help offset construction costs.

Owner:
Architect:
Contracting Method:

University of Alabama
Sherlock, Smith & Adams, Inc.
Traditional Bid

